

Oregon Pinto Horse Association
General Membership Meeting
Oct. 4, 2022

Meeting called to order at 7:18 p.m.

Attendance: Ashley Saechao, Jenna Wyatt, Annie Dundon, Delany Wurdinger, Tina Bell, Peggy Boyer, Sarah Krapes, Catherine and Aubrey Mooers, Emily Honey, Sarah Irwin, Elsie Brown, Christine Guenther, Ann Ebner, Laura Boileau, Noel Nelson, Maureen Weise, Ned Clements, Mike Merina, Vickie Gruver

Board accepted resignations of Annie Dundon, Delany Wurdinger and Tina Bell.

Minutes: Annie Dundon motioned to approve minutes as read. Peggy Boyer seconded. Motion passed.

Emily Honey motioned to allow new members to vote. Annie Dundon seconded. Motion passed.

Show committee:

- Delany Wurdinger motioned for Emily Honey to manage the fall show. Annie Dundon seconded. Motion passed.
- Don Carter agreed to be ring steward.
- Food cart will be on-site.
- Emily Honey will be picking up extra awards.
- Shawn and Zane Charters audit the class results and points.
- Jenna Wyatt will pass out high points.
- Tina Bell will do measuring of minis and ponies as well as on-site registration.
- Tina Bell motioned to waive late fees on show entries and stalls. Emily Honey seconded. Motion passed.
- Emily Honey has a crew coming to help with setup.
- Jenna Wyatt will help with obstacle driving course.
- Elsie Brown will be sponsoring the costume class and stall decorating contest.

Old business:

- Deadline to reserve March 10-12 for the Spring Spectacular is Nov. 1.
- IRS: Club has not filed taxes since 2014. Vicki Gruver is an accountant and willing to assist in correcting this and getting our non-profit status back.
 - Tina Bell has a number for someone who helped another club overcome the same problem. She will email Emily Honey the name.

New business:

- Elections for 2023 officers will be held in December; nominations taken in November.

Next meeting: Tuesday, Nov. 8 at 7 p.m. Ann Ebner recommended Blondzee's restaurant on Portland Rd. in Salem.

Meeting adjourned at 7:45 p.m.