

2011 Miss Oregon Pinto Guidelines and Rule

Miss Oregon Pinto is a representative for the Oregon charter of the Pinto Horse Association of America. She is to have general knowledge of the Pinto horse and Oregon Pinto Horse Association in order to properly promote OPtHA to potential members. She will work under the direction of the OPtHA Board of Directors, the Queen Advisor, and along side the OPtHA Youth Royalty.

- Must be 17 years old on the first day of the contest, and no older than 25 on January first of the contest year.
 - Must be single, never married and never borne a child.
 - She or her family must own or lease a registered Pinto horse, pony or miniature.
 - The woman chosen as Miss Oregon Pinto is EXPECTED to attend all OPtHA sponsored functions (general membership meetings, shows, banquet) as well as represent OPtHA at various other events which could include, but not limited to, jubilee shows, Grand Floral Rose Parade and local parades, PtHA National Convention, Pinto World Championship Show, local equine events. If she cannot attend a club-sponsored event, a written statement is to be sent to the OPtHA Queen and Board Members, stating her reason(s) for her absence.
 - Miss Oregon Pinto should attend at least 10 equine events or parades not sanctioned by Oregon Pinto within her year reign.
 - Must be a member in good standing of Oregon Pinto Horse Association the year preceding the contest year, and the year of her reign, making her a member of OPtHA three (3) consecutive years. It is not required, but strongly suggested that the member be active in OPtHA sanctioned functions prior to her reign. A member in good standing is defined for this purpose as: current OPtHA and PtHA dues are paid, no censures against member with OPtHA or PtHA, and all levies, fines, show fees or other fees and payments associated with OPtHA and PtHA must be current.
 - Contestants and Queen must conduct themselves in a manner befitting the title of Miss Oregon Pinto. In acting in the official capacity, as Miss Oregon Pinto, the use of alcohol and/or tobacco products in public is strictly prohibited.
 - Coronation will take place at the annual charter awards banquet.
 - Upon being crowned, she is responsible for maintaining a detailed scrapbook photo album of her reign.
 - If there are no qualified candidates to run for the Oregon queen position the club can opt not to appoint a queen for that year.
 - If no queen is appointed, all money in the queen fund is to be held aside in the queen fund.
 - To apply for the OPtHA queen, candidate must submit a resume, photo, and application to be received by the current Queen Advisor NO LATER THAN July 30th morning before the show starts
 - To run a full queen contest, there must be a minimum of three contestants. If there are less than three contestants, the Queen Advisor will run a modified contest.
- Contestants will be judged and scored in the following categories:
1. Horsemanship -A special pattern will be executed by each Miss Oregon Pinto contestant. The contestant has the choice between Stock seat, Hunt seat, Saddle seat, or Driving Reinsmanship. If there are not at least three contestants, secret judges will evaluate horsemanship in a single class.
 2. Personal Interview - A panel of Board Members and Queen's Committee will interview each contestant to evaluate personality, disposition and interpersonal skills.
 3. Written Exam – Administered to test contestant's knowledge of the Pinto Horse and the Oregon Pinto Horse Association.
 4. Appearance and Personality – Candidate will be judged on their personal conduct and manners as well as their poise and appearance (ability to be neat, clean and appropriately attired) throughout evaluation process.
 5. Secret Judging - A set number of judges will score each contestant's interaction/speaking ability with other members, treatment of animal and other categories.
